Letters

My purpose here is to attempt to express to all of you my sincere joy in possessing the plaque that symbolizes the CHEA Honor Award of 1982.

My contribution to our profession has largely been made through solitary work, work done from my home, work in other organizations, in isolation from other professionals. I cannot find adequate words to describe the feeling of encouragement that I derive daily from the CHEA Honor award.

I have been tremendously pleased by the development of C.H.E.A. into an organization alert and responsive to social issues. It is my hope that I will soon have the appropriate time spots to resume attendance at annual conventions.

I feel that great sense of pride in my professional organization and deep appreciation of the honor bestowed in 1982.

I found the Summer 1983 Canadian Home Economics Journal both stimulating and informative. Hopefully I will use some of the suggestions from the article on "Time Management."

Congratulations to all those involved for putting out a great magazine.
